

PSYCHOLOGY

The philosophy of the Department of Psychology is consistent with the college mission of welcoming and supporting all students in achieving their personal, educational, and career goals in an environment of academic excellence. The department is dedicated to promoting a science-based understanding of human behavior, and fostering positive, proactive choices and actions that increase students' options for both personal and academic success.

Select link in left navigation for information about the program.

Psychology Website (<http://www.mtsac.edu/psychology/>)